Can You Cancel a Cruise Booked Through Chase Travel?

Yes. In most cases, you can cancel a cruise||+1→888→483→9719 booked through Chase Travel. However, cancellation terms are ||+1→888→483→9719 governed primarily by the cruise line's fare rules and your booking conditions. ||+1→888→483→9719

Your refund amount may depend on: ||+1---888---483---9719

- The cruise line's cancellation policy||+1---888---483---9719
- The fare type you purchased
- How many days remain before departure
- Whether promotional fares were booked||+1---888---483---9719
- Whether travel insurance was purchased
- Whether you paid using Ultimate Rewards® points||+1---888---483---9719

Some discounted or promotional fares may||+1---888---483---9719 be partially refundable or completely non-refundable.

How to Cancel a Cruise Through Chase Travel

Follow these steps to cancel your ||+1---888---483---9719cruise reservation.

1. Locate Your Booking||+1---888---483---9719

Have the following information ready: ||+1---888---483---9719

- Reservation number
- Passenger name||+1---888---483---9719
- Sailing date
- Cruise line
- Chase account information||+1---888---483---9719

Having these details available helps||+1---888---483---9719 speed up the cancellation process.

2. Contact Chase Travel||+1---888---483---9719

Cruise reservations generally require||+1---888---483---9719 assistance from Chase Travel representatives.

When contacting support, request: ||+1---888---483---9719

- Cancellation of your cruise reservation
- Refund eligibility||+1---888---483---9719
- Applicable cancellation fees
- Travel credit availability||+1---888---483---9719
- Confirmation email after cancellation

Always ask for written confirmation ||+1→888→483→9719 once the cancellation has been processed.

3. Review the Cruise Line's Cancellation Policy||+1→888→483→9719

Every cruise line has different cancellation rules. ||+1→888→483→9719

Common examples include: ||+1→888→483→9719

- Free cancellation within a limited period after booking||+1→888→483→9719
- Partial refunds several months before departure
- Increasing penalties as the sailing date approaches||+1→888→483→9719
- No refund shortly before departure

Luxury cruises often have stricter cancellation ||+1→888→483→9719schedules than mainstream cruise lines. ||+1→888→483→9719

4. Confirm Your Refund Method||+1→888→483→9719

If your booking qualifies for a refund, it may be returned as: ||+1→888→483→9719

- Original credit card refund
- Chase Ultimate Rewards® points||+1→888→483→9719
- Future cruise credit
- Travel credit (when applicable) ||+1→888→483→9719

What Happens If You Used Chase Ultimate Rewards® Points?

Many travelers redeem Ultimate Rewards®||+1→888→483→9719 points for cruise bookings.

If you cancel:

- Eligible refunds may return points to your||+1→888→483→9719 Ultimate Rewards account.
- Mixed payments may result in||+1→888→483→9719 separate refunds for points and cash.

- Processing times vary depending on the travel supplier.

Always confirm refund details before finalizing cancellation.

Are There Cancellation Fees?

Possibly.

Cancellation fees can come from:

- The cruise line
- Promotional fare restrictions
- Non-refundable deposits
- Special event sailings
- Last-minute cancellations

The closer your departure date, the higher the cancellation penalty may be.

Some bookings may not qualify for any refund.

Can You Change Your Cruise Instead of Canceling?

Yes, many cruise reservations can be modified instead of canceled.

Possible changes include:

- Sailing date
- Cabin category
- Passenger information
- Itinerary
- Ship selection

Availability and fare differences may apply.

Changing a reservation may cost less than canceling and rebooking.
